BUYING NOT AT ALL HEAVY

All the Great Foreign Banks Make Universally Good Statements of Conditions-Much Gold Is Experted and There Will Be Calls for More Soon-B. & O. Earnings Decrease

New York, June 18 .- With every indication that before the opening of another stock exchange session there would be a Presidential nomination at Chicago, an increase of cheerfulness, even if only temporary and of a speculative nature, was visible in the financial district.

Dealings in securities were smaller than they were yesterday, and it was at all times obvious that the larger financial interests were doing absolutely nothing in the market, and that whatever activity there was in the trading was supplied only by small professional operators. But speculative operators of this class, although they allowed the market to remain stagnant during the morning hours, were generally inclined to buy stocks in a moderate way in the afternoon, having that is full of pitfalls.

The news of the day of actual financial character was of mixed and, on the who of not altogether encouraging sort. It the great foreign financial banks ma exceedingly strong weekly statements condition. The national banks of other great nations are taking advanta of the depression in interest rates he to dip their fingers deep in our gold su plies. This they are doing in a contin ous, unbroken, and extraordinary way.

More Gold Will Go.

In addition to the enormous sums deations to-day were that further gold export engagements would be made b fore the end of the week to the amou of $5,000,000 or over.

The economic force of these withdra als will, if not felt now, yet assert its

There was published this morning t statement of the May earnings of the B timore and Ohio Railroad Company, e piting a decrease in gross r $2,278,000, and in net of $1,373,000.
